

27.06.04

BRAEMORE WIN PRESTIGIOUS NATIONAL AWARD

Nottingham developer Braemore Properties, this week revealed that they won an award for Best Landscaping of a development at the 2004 Mail on Sunday National Homebuilder Design Awards. Up for the accolade is their Park Rock development on Castle Boulevard, Nottingham. The development is a collection of 1, 2 & 3 bedroom apartments and duplexes, overlooking Beeston Canal, and set on an important historical site within landscaped grounds. As Director Ben Walsgrove & Sales and Marketing Manager, John Archibald posed for their photo along with ex-bond girl Fiona Fullerton, they said "We are thrilled that a small regional developer is being recognised for their quality and vision along with the big names in London".

Braemore also received a commendation last year for Best Apartment for their Marlborough development.

Park Rock is now 75% sold and prices range from £185,000 - £280,000. The show home is open 7 days a week. 0115 941 9090.